There's no better way to start the new year: Mandarin Seminar

Learn Mandarin -- Really!

There's no better time to embark on your Mandarin-learning journey, and no better way to do it than to sign up for our seminar.

We'll start having basic conversations on Day 1. From then on, we'll meet twice a week to really hone your Mandarin skills. We'll go beyond greetings, numbers, and colors: by the end of the trimester, you'll feel comfortable having simple conversations in this beautiful tongue.

What: Mandarin Seminar Interest Meeting

When: Sunday, March 14, 2010
